The Tube

Mum said she liked the swim much more than her ride on the tube.

We had a great day!

Last weekend we went for a ride on Dad's new boat. It was lots of fun.

We also got a new tube for the boat. We had to hold on and try not to fall off.

Dad went really fast when we were on the tube. I fell off a few times but it didn't hurt.

Mum had a go too. She fell off a lot.

For lunch, we had a picnic on the beach. After we ate, Mum and I went for a swim.

Ted liked to camp with his family. One time they all camped by the river. Ted put up his tent next to the river.

Ted liked to play tricks on his family. Ted put worms in his sister's tent. He let down his dad's air bed. His family got very angry with him.

One night there was a big storm and the river rose. Ted floated out of his tent and into the river on his air bed. The air bed hit a branch. It stopped and Ted woke up.

"Help, help, help!" screamed Ted.

Dad woke up and came outside.

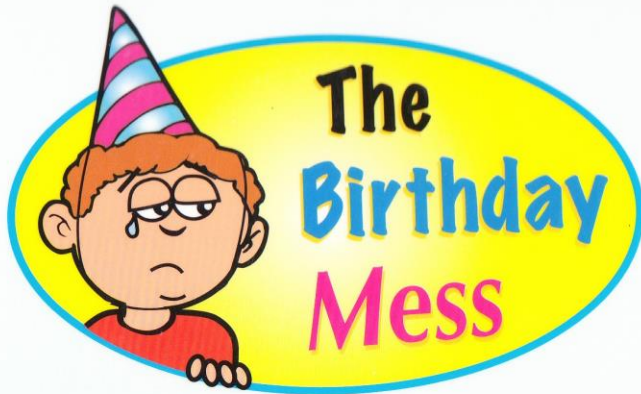

"Are you going to keep playing tricks?" asked Dad.

"This is no trick. Help!" screamed Ted.

Dad walked out to get Ted. The water was only ankle deep. Ted's mum and sister laughed. Ted felt silly, but that was the end of his tricks.

It was my birthday on Saturday.
I had a party.

My friends from school came, even Silly Billy. Mum said that it would be mean to not invite him.

My birthday was such a mess!

First, Billy knocked Sam into the pool. Sam could not swim.

His dad had to jump in after him.
He was still in all of his clothes.

Next, Billy put his face in my cake.

He was trying to be funny. It was not funny. We could not eat it.

We asked Billy's mum to come and get him.

"Billy has been very bad," Dad told his mum.

Billy's mum was very angry with Billy.

The next day at school, Billy brought in a new cake for me.
It was a yummy chocolate cake.

He said he was sorry for being silly at my party. He said he would not be silly anymore.

We just call him Billy now.

The Flash [3]

Written by Jacqui Edwards. Illustrated by Dave Atze.

Nikisha is The Flash.
She is cool, she can run, but most of all, she likes to help.

YAP! YELP!

“What was that?” thinks Nikisha. The Flash rushes to help.

The yapping is coming from down a deep hole. The Flash gets her torch and looks in.

Little Pookee the dog is stuck down the hole. He yaps for help.
He has cut his leg too.

The Flash jumps into the hole.
She holds Pookee with her strong hands and lifts him up.

The dog licks her. He is glad to be free.

She sets him down on a mat on the porch. “You will be OK, Pookee. It’s only a little cut.”

The Flash helps again. Who will
The Flash help next?
