

This is what our school looked like as it was being built. The photographs were taken by Sharon P, one of our neighbours.

