

Everyone who was at our school in 2003 was given a material square to decorate based on the history of our area, our cultural background or our hopes for the future. Mrs Flashman took the squares and made them into this tapestry. It hangs in the foyer of the administration block.

